

Coweta Public Schools is committed to the prevention and avoidance of gender discrimination in connection with school sponsored extracurricular activities, including school sponsored sports.

If at any time a parent/guardian perceives that there could be such discrimination in the district's programs or activities then they can file a grievance with the district's Title IX coordinator Max Myers.

The grievance should be made in writing and delivered to the education service center at P.O. Box 550 Coweta, OK 74419.
