PAT TILLMAN

- Pat Tillman was a professional football player for the Arizona Cardinals.
- After the September 11th attack, Pat joined the Army and became a member of the Rangers, an elite unit.
- He left a $3.6 million pro football contract behind. “For the love of my brother. And for the love of my country,” was his explanation.
- In April 2004, Pat Tillman made the ultimate Duty for his country when he was killed in Afghanistan.
- Pat Tillman was a free spirit and lived a life of conviction.

PAT TILLMAN

“I was dumbfounded by everything that was going on. In times like this, you stop and think how good we have it. I have always had a great deal of feeling for the flag, but you don’t realize how great of a life we have over here...”
