

Senior News Final Edition

Congratulations Class of 2017 and Parents!

We are coming to the end of a very successful year! Although I'm sure I will send some "remind" texts, this is the last official newsletter of the year. Of course that does not mean that our work is finished, in fact this is the beginning of a very exciting future! I am still available for last minute help on college choice, admissions, recommendation letters, career choice, etc. I want every student to "have a plan" about life after graduation. Thank you for all of your support this year, you are truly appreciated! ☺

Awards Ceremony

Our Awards assembly will begin at 9:00 a.m. in our gym on April 13 (this Thursday!) We would love for you to attend and recognize this outstanding class. Seniors are still reporting scholarship offers and it seems very likely that they will surpass the Class of 2016! Please encourage kids to continue to report offers as they continue to earn them.

AP Testing

Many students will also be participating in AP testing which is not included on the calendar. All testing will be at the Coweta Assembly of God church. Morning sessions are from 8:00a.m until noon. Afternoon sessions are noon until 4:00p.m. Students should report 15 minutes early for their assigned session and bring pencils, black or blue pens and approved calculator if allowed. The schedule for seniors taking AP tests is:

Monday, May 1	Chemistry and Environmental Science	A.M.
Wednesday, May 3	English Literature and Composition	A.M.
Friday, May 5	Studio Art (on campus)	P.M.
Tuesday, May 9	Calculus BC	A.M.
Thursday, May 11	World History	A.M.
Friday, May 12	European History	P.M.
